Act 668 of 2005 established a deduction of up to $10,000 for unreimbursed expenses related to the donation of a human organ (all or part of a liver, pancreas, kidney, intestine, lung, or bone marrow) to another human being. Allowable expenses include travel, lodging, medical expenses, and lost wages related to the organ donation.

The donation must have been made, while living, by the taxpayer or the taxpayer's dependent. The deduction must be claimed for the taxable year in which the organ transplantation occurred. An individual may claim the deduction only once in his/her lifetime.
