----------------	-------------------------------------

Filing Period: Beginning     ,      and ending     , MM YY MM YY

Purpose. You can claim a refund when you operate the power take-off (PTO) on a special fuels-powered vehicle. You can also claim a refund when you operate auxiliary engines on special fuels or gasoline-powered vehicles. Claim refunds using records of actual use, approved allowances, or nonstandard allowances.

PTO. Claim a PTO refund when you use special fuels from a vehicle’s main supply tank to operate the vehicle’s main engine for a purpose other than operating or propelling a motor vehicle on the road. Examples of eligible engines are compactors in garbage trucks, cranes, and bulk cement mixers.

Auxiliary Engine. Claim an auxiliary engine refund when you use fuel from a vehicle’s main supply tank to operate an engine other than the main engine used to operate or propel the motor vehicle on the road.

Options to claim refunds:

- Actual Use. You must use an electronic monitoring device that records the date, time of use, and gallons metered for each use to claim a refund based on your actual use.
- Approved Allowances. Use the approved allowances from the table in Sections II or III, if you qualify.
- Nonstandard Allowance. You can request a nonstandard allowance from the Idaho State Tax Commission by following the “Requesting a Nonstandard Allowance” instructions on page 2.
