FIDUCIARY BENEFICIARY'S SCHEDULE K-1 INFORMATION INSTRUCTIONS

General Instructions

Use Maryland Schedule K-1 (504) to report the share of the estate's or trust's additions and subtractions that are passed on to each beneficiary. Use this form to report each nonresident beneficiary's share of Maryland source income. Finally, use this form to report the taxes paid by a pass-through entity on behalf of the trust, if you are not claiming the credit on Maryland Form 504.

Specific Instructions

Enter the fiscal year used by the estate or trust in the header of this form, if you are not using a calendar year.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE ESTATE OR TRUST

Enter the name of the estate or trust, Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN), name and title of fiduciary and fiduciary's address in the four boxes under the subtitle.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE BENEFICIARY

- A. Enter the name of the beneficiary.
- B. Enter the beneficiary's Social Security Number or FEIN.
- Enter the beneficiary's address.
- Enter the beneficiary's percentage of distribution as of the year end of the estate or trust.
- Check the box identifying the type of entity describing the beneficiary.
- If the beneficiary is an individual or a fiduciary of another estate or trust, check the box identifying the resident status of the beneficiary.
- G. If the beneficiary is a nonresident, indicate the state of domicile; otherwise, leave the box empty.

DISTRIBUTED NET TAXABLE INCOME, MARYLAND MODIFICATIONS AND NONRESIDENT TAX PAID BY PASS-MARYLAND THROUGH ENTITY (PTE)

- 1. Enter the dollar amount of the beneficiary's share of the net taxable income that actually was distributed to the beneficiary by the estate or trust.
- 2. If the beneficiary is a nonresident individual, a nonresident fiduciary or a nonresident entity, enter the amount reported in box 1 that represents Maryland-
- 3. Enter the beneficiary's share of Maryland addition modifications applicable to the estate or trust income. Required additions appear in the instruction booklets based on the type of beneficiary: Resident, Nonresident, Corporation or Fiduciary. See www.marylandtaxes.
- 4. Enter the beneficiary's share of Maryland subtraction modifications applicable to the estate or trust income. Allowable subtractions appear in the instruction booklets based on the type of beneficiary: Resident, Nonresident, Corporation or Fiduciary. See www.marylandtaxes. gov.

- 5. If you are a member of a PTE, AND the PTE has paid a nonresident tax on behalf of you, AND you are a fiduciary of a trust, AND you are not claiming this credit on Form 504, you may pass this credit on to the beneficiary. If you are passing this credit on to the beneficiary, enter the dollar amount of this credit, the FEIN and the name of the PTE in the space provided in box 5.
 - Note: For the beneficiary to claim this credit, you also must furnish each beneficiary with a copy of the Maryland Schedule K-1 (510) received by you to substantiate your entitlement to this credit.
- 6. Enter the beneficiary's share of tax credits from Fiduciary Business Income Tax Credits Form 504CR, or Heritage Structure Rehabilitation Tax Credit Form 502S, in Box 6. In the column to the left, enter the name of the credit; and on the right enter the dollar amount. Do not complete this information for the One Maryland Credit. Use Box 7 if you have been certified to claim this credit and you are passing this credit on to the beneficiary.
- 7. If you have been certified to claim a One Maryland Economic Development Tax Credit from Maryland Form 504CR, complete Box 7 if you are passing this credit to your beneficiaries. They will need this information to claim their share of the credit on their tax return.
- 8. Complete Box 8 only if the trust made a withholding payment for a Nonresident Sale of Real Property on behalf of the member.

Attach a copy of each Maryland Schedule K-1 (504) to the original Form 504 that you submit to the Comptroller of Maryland. Also, provide each beneficiary with a copy of this schedule.

Instructions for Beneficiary

Use Maryland Schedule K-1 (504) to report your share of the estate's or trust's additions and subtractions that are passed on to you. You also will use this schedule to determine your share of Maryland source income if you are a nonresident.

Finally, you will use this form to claim a credit for taxes paid by a pass-through entity on behalf of a trust if the trust's fiduciary is not claiming the credit on the Maryland Form 504. See Form 502CR Instructions on how to claim this credit on your individual return.

If you have received this Maryland Schedule K-1 (504) and you wish to claim a credit that is shown, you must attach a copy of it to Form 502CR along with a copy of the Maryland Schedule K-1 (510) received by the fiduciary. You also will use this Maryland Schedule K-1 (504) to determine your share of Maryland source income if you are a nonresident.

If the fiduciary has sent you this schedule and indicated that the estate or trust is using a fiscal year instead of a calendar year, this schedule applies to your tax year in which the ending date of the fiduciary's fiscal year occurred.
