Worksheet Instructions

This credit is available for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2017, for certain employers that offer a qualified short-term and/or long-term disability income protection plan to its employees. The credit is $30 per employee enrolled in a qualified plan during the taxable year. Employees enrolled in a disability income protection plan during the employer's tax year immediately preceding the year the employer became eligible for the credit may not be included in the base on line 1 above for calculating the credit. An employer must claim the credit for the first taxable year during which the employer becomes eligible for the credit and may claim the credit for no more than 3 consecutive tax years. The credit is limited to the tax liability of the taxpayer and any unused credit amount may not be carried back or forward to other tax years.

2023 Credit for Disability Income Protection Plans Worsheet Instructions, continued

For purposes of the credit, a qualified long-term disability income protection plan is a plan that:
