Include amounts paid by the State to the municipality under the Property Tax Deferral Program. Part-year residents - enter only the property tax amounts you paid for your home in Maine during the part of the tax year you were a Maine resident. Note: You may be asked to provide proof of the property tax paid before a refund is issued.

- Do not use the amount of property tax assessed; enter only the amount of tax actually paid on your home during 2024.
- Do not include amounts paid for interest or special assessments.
- Do not include property taxes on property other than your primary residence.
- Do not claim any property tax paid by others, except for amounts paid by the State under the Property Tax Deferral Program. If the home is jointly owned, enter only the property tax you paid. You can claim the tax you paid on your home even if you have transferred ownership to someone else under a legal agreement that allows you to continue to live in the home, but you can claim the tax on the home only for as long as you live in the home.
- Do not include taxes on any part of your home or property used exclusively for business. For example, you owned a two-story building. You lived upstairs and ran a store downstairs. You can claim one-half of the property tax you paid. Do not include property taxes claimed as a business expense on your federal tax return.
- Do not include taxes on any part of your home that serves as a separate dwelling. Include only the taxes paid for the part of the home you occupied as your primary residence. For example, your primary residence is one unit located in a three-unit dwelling. You can claim only one-third of the property tax paid.

Note: If you owned a home that was on rented land or vice-versa, you can include the property tax you paid during 2024 on line 4 and the rent you paid during 2024 on line 5a. For example, you owned a mobile home located in a park. Enter the property tax on your mobile home on line 4 and the lot rent you paid on line 5a.

Line 5a. Enter the total rent you paid for your home (principal residence) in Maine during 2024. If you moved during the tax year, include the rent you paid during the tax year to live in each home or apartment. Include Workfare payments received from your town used to pay your rent. Part-year residents - enter only rent amounts you paid on your home in Maine during the part of the tax year you were a Maine resident. Note: You may be asked to provide copies of rent receipts or canceled checks before a refund is issued.

- Do not include mortgage payments or room and board payments. Mortgage payments and room and board payments are not rent.
- Do not include the rent amount paid by a government program.
- Do not include rent for any part of your home that was rented out to others. For example, you share an apartment with your sister. Each of you are equally responsible for one-half of the rent. Include only the amount of rent you paid to live in the apartment.
- Do not include rent for any part of your home used exclusively for business. For example, you rent a two-story building. You live in a 2nd floor apartment and run a business on the 1st floor. Claim only the portion of rent you paid for the right to live in the 2nd floor apartment.
- Do not include rent claimed as a business expense on your federal return.

Line 5c. If the rent you entered on line 5a includes an amount for heat, utilities, furniture, or other similar items and you know the amount paid toward the heat, utilities, furniture, or other similar items, enter the amount on line 5c. If your landlord cannot provide the amount you paid for heat, utilities, furniture, or other similar items, multiply the amount on line 5a by 15% (.15) and enter the result on line 5c. If the rent entered on line 5a does not include an amount paid for heat, utilities, furniture, or other similar items, enter 0 on line 5c.

Line 5d. Subtract line 5c from line 5a. The rent you paid can include only the amount paid for the right to live in your home, excluding amounts paid for heat, utilities, furniture, or other similar items.
