10 11	Purpose - Use Form D-410P to ask for 6 more months to file the North Carolina Partnership Income Tax Return, Form D-403 or the North Carolina Estates and Trusts Income Tax Return, Form D-407.	Late Payment Penalty - If you do not pay all the tax due by the original due date, multiply the tax not paid by the applicable penalty rate.	10 11
12 13 14	If the entity was granted an automatic extension to file its federal income tax return, federal Form 1065 or 1041, it does not have to file Form D-410P to receive an extension of time to file Form D-403 or D-407. Important.	From January 1, 2022, through June 30, 2022, the applicable rate is 10 percent (10%) regardless of how late the tax is paid. Beginning July 1, 2022, the applicable rate is 2 percent (2%) for each month, or part of a month, that the payment is late (up to a maximum penalty rate of 10 percent (10%).	13
15 16 17 18	Although the entity is not required to file Form D-410P to receive an automatic extension, if it needs to make a payment of tax that is estimated as due, complete and file Form D-410P by the regular due date of the return. If the entity does not pay the amount due by the regular due date, it will owe interest. It may also be charged penalties. For more information on Penalties and Interest, see the Department's website.	The penalty will apply on any remaining balance due if the tax paid by the original due date of the return is less than 90 percent of the total amount of tax due. If the 90 percent rule is met, any remaining balance due, including interest, must be paid with the income tax return on or before the expiration of the extension period to avoid the late payment penalty.	15 16 17 18
19 20 21 22	If the entity was not granted an automatic extension to file its federal income tax return, it MUST file Form D-410P to receive an extension of time to file Form D-403 or D-407. Even if the entity does not expect to owe additional tax, the entity must still apply for an extension and file the return by the extended due date for the return to be considered timely filed. The entity	Late Filing Penalty - A penalty is usually charged if the return is filed after the due date (including extensions). It is 5 percent of the tax for each month, or part of a month, that the return is late (maximum 25 percent). If the entity does not file the application for extension by the original due date	21
