Application for Extension for Filing Individual Income Tax Return

North Carolina Department of Revenue

Purpose - Use Form D-410 to request 6 more months to file the North Carolina Individual Income Tax Return, Form D-400. Important: Form D-410 does not extend the time to pay the tax.

In general, if you were granted an automatic extension to file your federal income tax return, federal Form 1040, you do not have to file Form D-410 to receive an extension of time to file Form D-400.

If you were not granted an automatic extension to file your federal income tax return, you MUST file Form D-410 to receive an extension of time to file Form D-400.

still apply for an extension and file the return by the extended due date for the return to be considered timely filed. You do not have to attach this form to your return.

To receive the extra time you MUST:

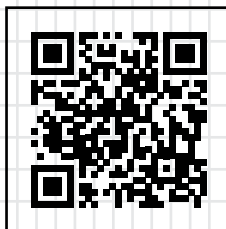

- 1. Estimate your tax liability using the information available to you, and enter that amount on Line 1 of Form D-410.
2. File Form D-410 by the due date of your tax return. You are not required to send a payment of the tax you estimate as due.

If you were granted an automatic extension to file because you were "out of the country" when your return was due, use this form to request an additional 2 more months to file Form D-400.
