- 1. Who must make estimated tax payments — Every domestic or foreign corporation or other entity subject to taxation under the provisions of Chapter 220, Florida Statutes, must declare estimated tax for the taxable year if the amount of income tax liability for the year will be more than $2,500.
- 2. Due Date — Generally, for a 6/30 tax year end, estimated tax must be paid on or before the last day of the 4th, 6th, and 9th month of the taxable year and the last day of the taxable year. For all other year ends, estimated tax is generally due on or before the last day of the 5th, 6th, and 9th month of the taxable year and the last day of the tax year. 25 percent (.25) of the estimated tax must be paid with each installment.
- 3. Amended Declaration — To prepare an amended declaration, write "Amended" on Florida Form F-1120ES and complete Lines 1 through 3 of the correct installment. You may file an amendment during any interval between installment dates prescribed for the taxable year. You must timely pay any increase in the estimated tax.
- 4. Interest and Penalties — If you fail to comply with the law about filing a declaration or paying estimated tax, you will be assessed interest and penalties.
